

Note Taking - High Middle Ages

Cathedrals

Explain 2 types of architecture

1. Gothic - tall spires, thin walls, gargoyles - flying buttresses
2. Romanesque - rounded or square towers, thick walls

Explain Stain Glass

It is blown glass

Told Bible Stories

Colorful - not many other things were colorful in the Middle Ages

Form of Art during Middle Ages

Architectural features in Middle Ages that reflect Religious beliefs of the time

Cathedral - built tall to reach the heavens

Relics of Christ in the Cathedrals

Church in the shape of a cross

Guilds

What is a guild - an association or club that regulates artisans and merchants

4 Rules

Price control

Wage Control

Quality control

Advertising control

3 guild lines

Take care of guild members families

Center of Social life

Sponsored entertainment

Hierarchy of a Guild

Master

Journeyman

Apprentice

Teacher Guild

Teachers who educated lawyers and helped to start universities

This caused a rebirth of culture

